On October 2, 2020, the court issued an order staying this case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362. (Doc. No. 25). At the court's direction, the parties filed a joint status report on February 16, 2023, advising that the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. § 362 no longer affects this case and requesting that the court set a scheduling conference in the near future. (Doc. No. 27).

Accordingly, the court lifts the stay. The court will hold a scheduling/discovery conference with the parties on March 28, 2023, at 9:00 AM. The scheduling conference will be held by telephone. To participate in the conference, the parties shall call (877) 810-9415 and enter access code 8992581. The parties are advised that telephone conferences may be electronically recorded for the convenience of the court.

No later than two business days prior to the conference, counsel shall submit their joint proposed revised scheduling/discovery plan, electronically signed and dated by counsel for all parties, in WordPerfect or Word format, to the magistrate judge at ndd\_J-Hochhalter@ndd.uscourts.gov. Counsel may use the court's sample Scheduling/Discovery plan, available at www.ndd.uscourts.gov/forms. If the court's sample form is used, please use the form as revised in August 2022.

Any disagreements among counsel as to deadlines will be discussed at the scheduling conference. Counsel are encouraged to have a comprehensive discussion and are required to approach the meeting cooperatively and in good faith. The discussion of claims and defenses should be substantive and meaningful.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 17th day of February, 2023.
